

Friends of Swindon Railway Museum

20 April 2020 lecture postponed

We are sorry to announce that due to the ongoing Covid-19 Coronavirus situation our lecture for April has been postponed until the autumn when we hope that Colin Brading will be able to give his lecture on the GWR electrification programme.

Further information will be posted here and on our website and Facebook pages as the situation develops.

Friends of Swindon Railway Museum

